TEAM MANAGEMENT

BILL FOLEY

Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Governor

Bill Foley knew that bringing an NHL franchise to Las Vegas was not going to be an easy task, but his persistence paid off on June 22, 2016. While that day will go down in history as the first day a major professional team entered the market, it would not have happened without the hard work from Foley and the people he surrounded himself with.

In the years leading up to the Board of Governor's announcement of the NHL's 31st franchise, Foley, the Vegas Golden Knights Chairman and CEO, was busy engaging the fan base and aligning himself with prominent people in the community. In early 2014, he entered an agreement with the Maloof family to pursue an NHL franchise in Las Vegas. At the end of 2014, the NHL granted Foley permission to gauge fan interest in Las Vegas.

On February 15, 2015, Foley and the Maloofs launched the "Vegas Wants Hockey" season ticket drive with the goal of 10,000 season tickets sold. They received more than 5,000 ticket deposits on the first day and about a month later, they reached their goal. In June, the NHL officially announced they would accept applications for expansion. Less than a month later Foley had submitted his application. He would spend the next 11 months meeting with NHL officials and governors on why Las Vegas was a good fit.

After expansion was announced, Foley went to work putting together his team. He named George McPhee the team's first General Manager on July 13, 2016 and the hockey operations staff started to take form. On October 3, 2016, Kerry Bubolz was named the team's first President and the business side of the team started to develop. The official team name, the Vegas Golden Knights, was announced on November 22, 2016, in front of thousands of fans in Toshiba Plaza in front of T-Mobile Arena.

Foley sat in on many meetings leading up to the Expansion Draft and on June 21, alongside McPhee, Foley announced picks at the NHL Awards Show in front of more than 10,000 fans at T-Mobile Arena.

In their inaugural season, the Golden Knights finished with a 51-24-7 overall record, won the Pacific Division and advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. Vegas became the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

Foley is the founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Fidelity National Financial Corporation (NYSE: FNF), a publicly traded Fortune 500 Company. A provider of title insurance, specialty insurance and claims management services, FNF was selected in 2004 by Forbes as one of the "26 Best Managed Companies in the U.S." and has repeatedly been named to Fortune's list of America's Most Admired Companies, Forbes' list of America's Best Big Companies and selected for Barron's list of Best Companies for Investors.

After receiving his B.S. degree in engineering from the United States Military Academy at West Point, Foley served in the U.S. Air Force, where he attained the rank of captain. He received an M.B.A. degree from Seattle University and earned his J.D. degree in 1974 from the University of Washington School of Law. From 1974 to 1984, Foley practiced law in Phoenix and focused primarily on corporate and real estate law. Following his legal tenure, Foley became affiliated with FNF. Through strategic acquisitions, Foley led FNF to become one of the largest title insurance companies in the nation, as well as to diversify into information services through the 2003 acquisition of ALLTEL Information Services, now Lender Processing Services (NYSE: LPS).

Foley devotes time to many educational and community organizations. In 1997, he was chosen as Orange County, California's Business Person of the Year, honored with the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation's Semper Fidelis award and inducted into the Florida Council of Economic Education's First Coast Business Hall of Fame in 2006.

Foley and his wife, Carol, are active philanthropists for many causes, especially those in support of children's education. Foley has served as a trustee on the boards of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and the Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens. He also serves on the board of the Folded Flag Foundation, and their mission is to provide educational scholarships and support grants to the spouses and children of the United States military and government personnel who died as a result of hostile action or in an accident related to U.S. combat operations. Foley's additional professional directorships include Winter Sports, Inc.; Ceridian Corporation; and Fidelity Newport Holdings, LLC.

In addition to his numerous professional and philanthropic commitments, Foley is an accomplished golfer, ranked in 2004 by Golf Digest as one of the top five executive golfers in the world. Foley enjoys his time as a vintner and is the founder and managing partner of Foley Family Wines, headquartered in Sonoma, Calif. Foley also formed and serves as Chairman of Glacier Restaurant Group, LLC, the largest restaurant business headquartered in Montana. He is the developer of Rock Creek Cattle Company, a 40,000-acre working Montana ranch, featuring a high-end golf community with diverse homesteads, a well-appointed lodge for recreation and dining and an exceptional golf course designed by Tom Doak.

TEAM MANAGEMENT

GEORGE McPHEE

President of Hockey Operations, Alternate Governor

On July 13, 2016, George McPhee became the first-ever President of Hockey Operations and General Manager of the Vegas Golden Knights. On September 1, 2019, McPhee retained the President of Hockey Operations when he promoted Kelly McCrimmon to the team's General Manager.

In his current role, McPhee oversees the team's day-to-day hockey operations including development, with an emphasis on scouting, drafting and overseeing the coaching staff. He has created a team-first culture in his short time with the franchise and has hired staff around him who share that philosophy.

The team's third season saw the Golden Knights post a 39-24-8 record (86points) and capture its second Pacific Division title in three years following a shortened regular season. The team advanced to the Western Conference Final, where Vegas fell to the Dallas Stars in five games.

During the team's second season, the Golden Knights posted a 43-32-7 record (93 points) and finished third in the Pacific Division. In the opening round of the 2019 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Vegas fell to the San Jose Sharks in seven games.

Under McPhee's guidance, the Golden Knights became the first expansion team to start their inaugural season 3-0. The Golden Knights continued their strong play in October, starting with an 8-1 record, despite losing multiple goaltenders to injury.

The Vegas Golden Knights finished their unprecedented inaugural season with a 51-24-7 record (109 points) and the Pacific Division title, becoming the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

For his efforts, McPhee was named the General Manager of the Year during the NHL Awards show on June 20, 2018. It was his first GM Award in his second appearance as a finalist, having finished as a runner-up in 2009-10 with the Washington Capitals.

Prior to the season, McPhee was tasked with putting together a competitive team in the short-term but also building for long-term success. Contributing to both of those goals was a successful Expansion Draft. The Expansion Draft was not the only place where McPhee and his staff were successful. Through the expansion process, the Golden Knights made agreements with other teams and benefited by having three first-round draft picks in the 2017 NHL Entry Draft and 13 overall picks in the draft. The team ended up making 12 selections, the most of any team in the 2017 draft.

McPhee joined the Golden Knights after most serving as a Special Advisor to New York Islanders General Manager Garth Snow in 2015.

Prior to his time with the Islanders, McPhee served as Vice President and General Manager of the Washington Capitals for 17 seasons. Under his guidance, the Capitals grew from a lottery team to a perennial contender with multiple Southeast Division championships and the team captured the Presidents' Trophy in 2009-10.

The Capitals reached the playoffs 10 times during McPhee's tenure in Washington, including six straight seasons from 2007-08 to 2012-13. Under his leadership, the team claimed seven Southeast Division titles and he oversaw the Capitals first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1997-98, McPhee's first season with the franchise.

McPhee also saw success through the draft while with Washington as the team held 15 first-round draft picks from 2004-13, the most of any NHL team. His most notable selection was the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's only active three-time MVP. Prospects flourished under McPhee's direction as the Capitals affiliate of the American Hockey League, the Hershey Bears, were Calder Cup champions in 2006, 2009 and 2010.

Prior to his time in Washington, McPhee spent five seasons as the Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then General Manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup Final.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. A four-year letterwinner from 1978-82, he was the recipient of the 1982 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, given to the top player in college hockey. His other accolades included a first-team All-CCHA selection in 1982, second-team All-CCHA honors in 1979 and 1981 and his selection as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year in 1979. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Following his seven seasons with the Rangers and New Jersey Devils, McPhee earned his law degree from Rutgers University in 1992.

McPhee and his wife, Leah, have two daughters, Grayson and Adelaide, and one son, Graham, who was drafted by the Edmonton Oilers in the fifth round of the 2016 NHL Entry Draft.

TEAM MANAGEMENT

KERRY BUBOLZ

President, Chief Operating Officer, Alternate Governor

On October 3, 2016, Vegas Golden Knights Chairman and owner Bill Foley announced Kerry Bubolz as the first President and Chief Operating Officer of the Golden Knights. In his role, Bubolz oversees all business aspects of the franchise.

Bubolz is in his third season with the Golden Knights after leading the organization to tremendously successful first two campaigns. The Golden Knights continued to exceed expectations in their second season, averaging 105.5% capacity at T-Mobile Arena while also achieving a top 5 ranking in the NHL in team allocated sponsorship revenue, ticket sales and merchandise sales.

Bubolz was also instrumental in negotiating the franchise's television deal with Root Sports (now AT&T Sportsnet), broadcasting VGK games not only locally in Las Vegas but extending throughout the Western Rockies region through Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and parts of California and Arizona. In only their second year, the Golden Knights ranked 3rd in the NHL's U.S. markets with a 4.2 average household rating for the 18-19 regular season. For the 2019-2020 preseason, the Golden Knights made their television broadcasts even more accessible to fans through partnerships with KTNV, Nevada Sports Network, and KJZZ, allowing the games to be seen in Las Vegas, Reno, and Salt Lake City.

The organization also captured national attention with their best-in-class game presentation putting on a show for both Golden Knights fans, and NHL fans. Players across the league have taken notice of the incredible atmosphere at Golden Knights games, as T-Mobile Arena was voted "Best Atmosphere in the NHL" by the players in a recent NHL Players' Association Poll. Bubolz's steady leadership ultimately led to the organization winning the Sports Business Journal's prestigious Sports Team of the Year Award for the 2017-2018 season, as well as the National Hockey League's "Commissioner Award for Business Excellence" for the inaugural season. The Golden Knights continued to earn recognition in their second season by winning the NHL Business Awards Stanley for best in class social media content.

Bubolz has also instilled a commitment to community outreach and service in the franchise through the organization's various charitable initiatives. The Golden Knights Foundation serves as the primary charitable link between the team and the Las Vegas community focusing on five pillars including, fighting hunger and homelessness in Las Vegas, securing the future of Las Vegas military, first responders and their families, and fostering physical, social and emotional growth of Las Vegas youth. The Golden Knights Foundation has been supported by the 51/49 raffle, which has raised more than $2,500,000 during the team's first two seasons. Bubolz's commitment to community and growing the sport of hockey in Southern Nevada is evidenced by the team's hockey development programs, including the "Golden Knights Hockey Academy" which reaches over 200,000 children in Clark County middle and elementary schools.

Prior to joining the Golden Knights, Bubolz spent 13 years with the National Basketball Association's Cleveland Cavaliers. In 2013, he was named President, Business Operations where he oversaw ticketing and suite sales, corporate sponsorship revenue, broadcast, marketing, communications and community engagement for the franchise. In Bubolz's time with the Cavaliers, the team won the Eastern Conference Championship three times and won the NBA championship in 2016. The Cavaliers were consistently recognized by the NBA during their annual Sales & Marketing awards ceremonies as a top performing team in all key business metrics.

In addition to overseeing Cavaliers business operations, Bubolz also served as President and Alternate Governor for all franchise property teams owned by the Cavaliers Operating Company, including the Lake Erie Monsters of the American Hockey League. In 2016, the Monsters won the Calder Cup and finished third in league average attendance with 8,596 fans per-game. He was also President and Chief Operating Officer of the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League from 1994 to 2000.

The Tulsa, Oklahoma native also brings an abundance of National Hockey League experience to Las Vegas. He served as vice president of sales for the Carolina Hurricanes and the Dallas Stars prior to joining the Cavaliers.

Bubolz graduated from Oklahoma State University with a Bachelors' Degree in marketing in 1989. He and his wife, Melissa, live in Summerlin and have two daughters, Madison and Emma.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

KELLY McCRIMMON
General Manager

On September 1, 2019, Kelly McCrimmon took over the General Manager duties for the Vegas Golden Knights. He originally came to Las Vegas as one of George McPhee's first appointments and was instrumental in the development of the front office staff, roster and culture for the organization during the first three years with the team.

McCrimmon joined the organization after serving as Owner, Governor, General Manager and Head Coach of the Western Hockey League's Brandon Wheat Kings and has been with the organization since 1988-89. McCrimmon served as Head Coach from 2004-11, and 2013-16. He has helped the Wheat Kings to five Memorial Cup appearances, once as a player (1979), three times as General Manager (1995, 1996, 2016) and twice as Head Coach and General Manager (2010, 2016).

Under McCrimmon's guidance, the Wheat Kings have captured 10 Eastern Division pennants and six Eastern Conference Championships. He was named WHL Executive of the Year in 1994-95, 2009-10, 2014-15, and received the Canadian Hockey League Executive of the Year award in 2009-10.

Since the 1992-93 campaign, when the Wheat Kings established a CHL record that still stands for the biggest single-season improvement of 62 points, the club has won more games than any other team in the CHL and has made the playoffs 22 of the last 24 seasons.

McCrimmon is the Wheat Kings All-Time winningest coach, having won over 400 games behind Brandon's bench. He purchased one-third ownership of the Wheat Kings from partner Bob Cornell in 1992, and assumed sole ownership in 2000. A member of the WHL's Board of Governors, McCrimmon also served as Chairman of the league's Competition Committee.

The Plenty, Saskatchewan, native played two seasons in Brandon in the late seventies and was a member of the 1979 WHL Championship club before moving on to the University of Michigan from 1980-84, serving as team captain his senior year. He will continue to serve as Owner and Governor of the Wheat Kings.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

MISHA DONSKOV
Director of Hockey Operations

Misha Donskov was named Director of Hockey Operations for the Vegas Golden Knights on August 8, 2016. In this role, he provides day-to-day leadership to the team's management group and hockey operations department. His responsibilities include overseeing video/technology and analytics, managing the amateur and pro scouting administrative platforms, scouting and player evaluation at the amateur and pro levels, and providing support to the coaching staff. In addition, he advises President of Hockey Operations George McPhee and General Manager Kelly McCrimmon with regards to talent evaluation, player transactions, roster management and the amateur draft.

Donskov joined the Golden Knights after serving as Manager of Hockey Operations/Analytics & Video for Hockey Canada's Men's National Teams. On July 1, 2016, he was appointed Assistant Coach/Hockey Operations for the Men's National Teams. During his time with Hockey Canada, Misha won a gold medal at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey in Toronto, serving as an Assistant Coach on Mike Babcock's staff. In addition, Donskov won gold medals with Canada at the 2016 IIHF World Championship in Russia, the 2015 IIHF World Championship in the Czech Republic, the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship in Toronto and Montreal and with the 2013 Under-18 Team at the Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in the Czech Republic and Slovakia. He won a bronze medal with Canada's National Men's Under-18 Team at the 2014 IIHF U18 World Championship in Finland. Donskov also served on Canada's coaching staff for the Canada-Russia Challenge, CHL Subway Series and Deutschland Cup.

Prior to his work with Hockey Canada, he was an associate coach with the Ontario Hockey League's Ottawa 67's from 2012-14 and spent three seasons with the London Knights. With the Knights, he served as assistant general manager and assistant coach, winning an Ontario Hockey League championship in 2012. In 2011, Donskov won a gold medal with the U.S. Women's National Team in Zurich, Switzerland serving as player development coach and advanced scout. Donskov also spent eight years working with the NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets and Atlanta Thrashers organizations within hockey development, community development, fan development, marketing and hockey operations.

Before pursuing a career in hockey, Donskov spent six years with Cardinal Health, a Fortune 500 healthcare services company. He played hockey at the junior, university, and semi-professional level in Canada, United States, Sweden and Norway. Donskov holds a master's degree in kinesiology with a specialization in coaching education from the University of Western Ontario, as well as an undergraduate degree in business administration/finance from Miami (Ohio) University. He and his family own and operate Donskov Hockey Development in Columbus, Ohio. Donskov and his wife, Amy, reside in Las Vegas.

ANDREW LUGERNER
Director of Legal Affairs

Andrew Lugerner is Director of Hockey Legal Affairs of the Golden Knights. In this role he handles player contract negotiations, contract research and analysis, oversees the salary arbitration process and the organization's day-to-day salary cap position and interprets NHL/NHLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement issues. He also assists President of Hockey Operations George McPhee and General Manager Kelly McCrimmon with day-to-day operations of the hockey operations department including player movement, roster transactions, season scheduling, budgeting and training camp planning.

Prior to joining the Golden Knights, Lugerner worked in New York as a corporate lawyer with the international law firm Latham & Watkins LLP. He also served as a 7th and 8th grade math teacher as a Teach For America Corps Member in the Greater New Orleans Region.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Science in 2008 from Emory University. From there he went on to earn his J.D. from the UCLA School of Law in 2013. While in law school, he was a legal intern for the Washington Capitals during the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons.

Lugerner, a native of Potomac, Maryland, now resides in Las Vegas.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

VAUGHN KARPAN
Director, Player Personnel

Vaughn Karpan is in his fifth season as Director, Player Personnel for the Golden Knights. In his role, Karpan oversees the scouting of players at the professional level as the Golden Knights continue to bolster the team's roster and prospect pool. This includes advising the hockey operations department on potential trades, transactions and signings.

Karpan is beginning his 28th season in the NHL and joined the Golden Knights after eleven years with the Montreal Canadiens hockey operations department. During his time with Montreal, he served as an amateur scout and pro scout before being named director of professional scouting in 2015. Prior to joining the Canadiens, he worked as a scout and director of amateur scouting for the Winnipeg Jets/Arizona Coyotes organization for thirteen seasons.

Before becoming a scout, he played for Canada's national hockey team from 1983-88, participating in the 1984 Sarajevo and 1988 Calgary Olympics. He also played one season with the WHL's Brandon Wheat Kings in 1979-80. Karpan went on to graduate from the University of Manitoba, where he captained the school's hockey team.

Karpan and his wife Marjorie make their home in Langley, BC. He has two adult sons; Nick and William.

BOB LOWES
Assistant Director, Player Personnel

Bob Lowes is in his fifth season as the Assistant Director, Player Personnel for the Golden Knights. In this role, he assists Director of Player Personnel Vaughn Karpan in scouting players at the professional and amateur levels to bolster the team's roster and prospect pool. VEGAS GOLDEN KNIGHTS

YEAR IN REVIEW

VEGAS BORN

2020 PLAYOFF NOTES

RETURNING TO THE WESTERN CONFERENCE FINAL

After defeating the Vancouver Canucks in seven games, the Vegas Golden Knights punched their ticket to the Western Conference Final, which was the team's second appearance in three years. Vegas became the first team to reach the Conference Finals multiple times in its first three NHL seasons since the series was introduced in 1982.

AS A TEAM IN THE POSTSEASON

The Vegas Golden Knights have appeared in 47 playoff games since the franchise's first season and have a recorded 28 victories. Both numbers rank second in the league, behind Boston (49 games) and Tampa Bay (29 victories), respectfully. The Golden Knights' 139 playoff goals also rank second behind Boston (149 goals). Vegas leads the league with 1,889 hits, 826 blocked shots and 462 takeaways.

SHUTOUTS ON EITHER SIDE

After being shut out in Game 1 of the Western Conference Final, Vegas exacted its revenge by blanking Dallas in Game 2. It was the first time in the modern era (since 1943-44) that the Conference Finals/Semifinals have opened with each team earning a shutout within the first two contests.

ELITE LINEMATES

Vegas forwards Jonathan Marchessault & Reilly Smith have been linemates nearly since the inception of the franchise. Their chemistry in the playoffs since the first postseason has been apparent as the pair has collaborated on 22 postseason goals in three years (goals on which both players recorded point), which ranks tied for second in the NHL. Individually either Smith or Marchessault — who are first & second, respectively, on the Golden Knights' all-time playoff points list — have recorded a point on 41.0 percent of Vegas' all-time playoff goals (57 of 139).

Team	Teammates	Playoff Goals Combined For (since 2018)
Boston	Marchand/Pastrnak	25
Boston	Bergeron/Marchand	22
Vegas	Marchessault/Smith	22

PANDA EVEN BETTER IN ROUND 2

Robin Lehner posted three shutouts against the Vancouver Canucks, including a 3-0 win in the organization's first-ever Game 7 victory. He matched the NHL record for most shutouts in a playoff series and became the first goaltender since 2016 to record a shutout in his first career Game 7 appearance (last was San Jose's Martin Jones). Against the Canucks, Lehner finished with a 1.54 goals against-average and a .934 save percentage to go with a 3-3 record in six appearances.

GAME 7 VS. VANCOUVER

The Vegas Golden Knights captured their first victory in a Game 7, defeating the Vancouver Canucks, 3-0. Vegas Head Coach Pete DeBoer moved to 5-0 all-time in Game 7 situations and is the only coach in NHL history to win his first five Game 7 contests. Additionally, Vegas became the third franchise in NHL history to earn multiple series wins in two of its first three NHL seasons, in joining the Rangers (1928 and 1929) and Blues (1968, 1969 & 1970).

2020 PLAYOFF NOTES

TUCH CALLS GAME!
Alex Tuch posted three game-winning goals during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs and leads the Golden Knights with five postseason game winners since the franchise's inception. He is one of six players who have recorded five game-winning goals since the 2018 playoffs.

PANDA IN ROUND 1
Robin Lehner (23 saves) earned the series-clinching win versus his former team, the Chicago Blackhawks. Lehner became the second goaltender in NHL history to earn a series-clinching win against a team that he played for earlier in the same season, joining Boston's Hal Winkler in Game 2 of the 1927 Semifinals against the Rangers (3-1 W). Against Chicago, he finished with a 2.20 goals-against average and a .905 save percentage to go with a 3-1 record in four appearances.

ROCKIN' ROUND ROBIN
The Vegas Golden Knights finished round robin play with a 3-0 record after defeating the Dallas Stars (5-3 on Aug. 3), the St. Louis Blues (6-4 on Aug. 6) and the Colorado Avalanche in overtime (4-3 on Aug. 8). After finishing with a perfect record, the Golden Knights earned the #1 seed in the Western Conference and will open the round of 16 against the #8 Chicago Blackhawks.

OVERCOMING MULTI-GOAL DEFICITS
The Vegas Golden Knights staged another comeback during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, defeating the Chicago Blackhawks, 4-3 (Aug. 18) after trailing by multiple goals in the contest. The Golden Knights now have 14 multi-goal comeback wins to their credit. Vegas also came back to win in two games earlier in the postseason, winning consecutive games (Aug. 3 & Aug. 6). The only other time they won consecutive games after trailing by multiple goals in each was in 2017-18, their inaugural season (Dec. 17 & Dec. 19). Against the Dallas Stars (Aug. 3), Vegas won after trailing by multiple goals in the third period for the first time (regular season or playoffs). The largest deficit the Golden Knights have overcome to win a game is three goals, on Jan. 4, 2020 against the Blues (5-4 OTW). The Golden Knights became the third different franchise in NHL history with three multi-goal comeback wins through their first eight games in a postseason, joining the Bruins in 1943 as well as the North Stars in 1968 & 1985.

MAKING THE POSTSEASON, AGAIN AND AGAIN
Vegas is the fourth team in NHL history to make the playoffs in each of its first three seasons, joining the Oilers as the only team to do it in the post-expansion era (i.e. excluding teams who joined the NHL in 1967-68 or earlier). The Oilers went on to extend their streak to 13 consecutive seasons, a run which saw them capture five Stanley Cups within their first 11 campaigns. Though playing under different rules and circumstances, these are the other franchises to make the playoffs in each of their first three NHL seasons, with their consecutive playoff appearances and inaugural season noted in parentheses: Oilers (13; 1979-80), Rangers (9; 1926-27) and Blues (6; 1967-68).

2020 PLAYOFF NOTES

SERIES WINNERS (ESPECIALLY ON THE ROAD)

The Golden Knights have more series wins than two active franchises (5), posting three of their series-clinching victories as the road team. They are one of six NHL franchises to earn each of its first three such wins as visitors, following Calgary/Atlanta (6), Pittsburgh (4), NY Islanders (3), San Jose (3) and Minnesota (3).

PODIUMS IN THE PACIFIC DIVISION

Vegas has sat in a top three position in their division for 424 of 559 total days (76%) as an NHL franchise. Only one team to debut in the League's expansion era (since 1967-68) holds a higher percentage of time in a top three position in their division through their first three NHL campaigns: Nashville (81%, 460 of 571).

PLAYERS FROM INAUGURAL RUN

Thirteen Golden Knights players who helped the club reach the 2018 Final remain with the team: William Carrier, Derek Engelland, Marc-Andre Fleury, William Karlsson, Jonathan Marchessault, Brayden McNabb, Jon Merrill, Tomas Nosek, Ryan Reaves, Nate Schmidt, Reilly Smith, Shea Theodore and Alex Tuch.

SMITH PACES THE GROUP

Reilly Smith is the Golden Knights leading scorer in the playoffs with 42 points (11 G, 31 A) in 47 games, one of seven skaters to appear in every Golden Knights postseason game. Smith also has turned in 11 multi-point games including a three point game against Chicago (Aug. 11, 2020). His 31 postseason assists with Vegas are also a team-high.

CONSECUTIVE PLAYOFF RUNS

Vegas goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury has made 14 consecutive postseason appearance after getting the start against the St. Louis Blues Round Robin portion of the 2020 NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs. He is tied with Tony Esposito for the longest consecutive run by a goaltender making a playoff appearance. He also holds the longest active streak amongst any player in the four major leagues (MLB/NBA/NFL/NHL). The full list is below.

PLAYER	LEAGUE	CONSECUTIVE YEARS IN POSTSEASON
Marc-Andre Fleury	NHL	14
JJ Redick	NBA	13
Tom Brady	NFL	12
Kyle Korver	NBA	12
Patrick Chung	NFL	11
Matthew Slater	NFL	11

2020 PLAYOFF NOTES

SHUTOUTS IN THE POSTSEASON

Marc-Andre Fleury has 15 career postseason shutouts, tied with Clint Benedict and Chris Osgood for fourth place on the NHL's all-time playoff list. Fleury posted two of his four career series-clinching shutouts during the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

FLEURY CLIMBING ALL-TIME RANKINGS

With 81 career playoff victories, Marc-Andre Fleury broke a tie with Ken Dryden for sixth place on the NHL's all-time list. Fleury, who leads all active goaltenders in postseason games played (146), wins (81) and shutouts (15) now sits seven victories from tying Ed Belfour and Billy Smith (88) for fourth overall.

TOP VEGAS SCORERS FROM LAST YEAR RETURNING TO POSTSEASON

The Golden Knights return the majority of the group from a season ago, including some exceptional participants of the 2019 Stanley Cup Playoffs: Mark Stone (6-6—12 in 7 GP), Max Pacioretty (5-6—11 in 7 GP) and Paul Stastny (2-6—8 in 7 GP).

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE

Combined, the Vegas Golden Knights came into the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs having appeared in 868 Stanley Cup playoff games. That number ranks as the most of any Pacific Division team involved in the 2020 tournament, the third most in the Western Conference & the seventh most in the league.

2019-20 NOTES

PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS

Once the season was deemed complete by the NHL, the Golden Knights became the first franchise in League history to capture a division title multiple times within their first three NHL seasons (among clubs to debut when the NHL featured divisions from 1926-27 to 1937-38 and in each campaign since 1967-68). Vegas finished with a 39-24-8 record (86 points) and were three points ahead of the Edmonton Oilers. The fewest seasons required by a franchise to win its second division title is four, achieved by the Oilers in 1982-83 (47-21-12, 106 points).

PODIUM POSITION IN THE PACIFIC

Vegas has sat in a top three position in their division for 424 of 559 total days (76%) as an NHL franchise. Only one team to debut in the League's expansion era (since 1967-68) holds a higher percentage of time in a top three position in their division through their first three NHL campaigns: Nashville (81%, 460 of 571).

PODIUM POSITION IN THE PACIFIC, PART DEUX

Since the introduction of divisions in 1926-27, only two NHL franchises have finished among the top three in their division in each of their first three seasons: the Rangers (American Division: 1st in 1926-27, 2nd in 1927-28, 2nd 1928-29) and Blues (West Division: 3rd in 1967-68, 1st in 1968-69, 1st in 1969-70).

GOING STREAKING!

The Vegas Golden Knights matched the longest win streak in franchise history after rattling off eight consecutive wins from February 13-28. Vegas became the first team in NHL history to post multiple such runs of at least eight games through their first three seasons of existence. The Sabres (8-0-0 in 1972-73) and 1917 Senators (9-0-0 in 1919-20) are the only other clubs to register at least one. The Golden Knights posted an eight-game run in the midst of its historic inaugural season, doing so from Dec. 14, 2017 – Jan. 2, 2018.

HOME COOKING AT THE FORTRESS

While the Golden Knights won't play any games at T-Mobile Arena during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Vegas once again saw success on home ice. The team finished with 48 points (22-11-4), which was tied for the fifth most points in the league at their home arena.

LAYING THE LUMBER

The Vegas Golden Knights once again rank amongst the heaviest hitters in the NHL this season, averaging 26.51 hits per game. Vegas forward Ryan Reaves was the only player in the NHL to finish with more than 300 hits, recording a career-high 316. It is the first time in his career that Reaves has logged back-to-back seasons of 300 or more hits. His linemate William Carrier finisehd with 213 hits in 71 games.

Most Hits per Game – 2019-20

New York Islanders	27.71
Ottawa Senators	27.46
Pittsburgh Penguins	26.95
Vegas Golden Knights	26.51
Montreal Canadiens	26.20

X MARKS THE SPOT

For the third consecutive season, the Vegas Golden Knights clinched a spot in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Vegas is the fourth team in NHL history to make the playoffs in each of its first three seasons, joining the Oilers as the only team to do it in the post-expansion era (i.e. excluding teams who joined the NHL in 1967-68 or earlier). Though playing under different rules and circumstances, these are the other franchises to make the playoffs in each of their first three NHL seasons, with their consecutive playoff appearances and inaugural season noted in parentheses: Oilers (13; 1979-80), Rangers (9; 1926-27) and Blues (6; 1967-68). The Golden Knights will open the 2020 playoffs playing in a round robin format against the Dallas Stars, St. Louis Blues and Colorado Avalanche in order to determine seeding for the first round.

FABULOUS FEBRUARY

The Vegas Golden Knights finished the month of February with a 10-2-1 record. The team's .808 points percentage led the NHL, while the 21 points & 10 victories the Golden Knights accrued tied for fourth in the league. It is the first time this season that Vegas finished a month with double digit-victories & second time this season that the team captured 20 points or more (December, 9-4-2 for 20 points). The 10 wins are also the second most the Golden Knights have captured in a single month in team history, behind the 11 the team won in December of the inaugural season (December 2017, 11-1-1 for 23 points). It was the fifth time in team history that Vegas finished a calendar month with 20 or more points. Below are the most productive months in team history in terms of points:

December 2017 - 23 points (11-1-1)
February 2020 - 21 points (10-2-1)
December 2018 - 21 points (9-3-3)
December 2019 - 20 points (9-4-2)
March 2018 - 20 points (9-5-2)

MEMORABLE DEBUTS

Ten players have scored a goal in their respective debuts with the Vegas Golden Knights & four of those players posted multi-point games in those contests. Nick Cousins (1G) was the latest to achieve the feat against the Edmonton Oilers (Feb. 26, 2020).

2019-20 NOTES

ELEVEN GOAL AFFAIRS

In February, the Golden Knights participated in three games where 11 total goals were scored. Vegas fell to Carolina on Feb. 8 (6-5, SOL) and edged the Blues in overtime on Feb. 13 (6-5, OTW) before defeating Anaheim in overtime on Feb. 23 (6-5, OTW). They joined the Predators (3x in Oct.) and Rangers (3x in Nov.) as the third team this season to compete in three games with 11 combined goals in a single month (including shootout-deciding goals).

SOME VGK TAKEAWAYS

The Vegas Golden Knights lead the NHL with 682 takeaways through 71 games this season. Last season, Vegas was the only team to record over 900 takeaways, finishing with 903, which were the most recorded by a team since the NY Islanders finished the 2009-10 season with 948 takeaways. Vegas is led by Mark Stone, who ranked third in the league with 78 takeaways, & Reilly Smith, who ranks tied for 11th in the NHL, with 58 takeaways. Shea Theodore (55 takeaways) & William Karlsson (54 takeaways) also ranks in the league's top-20, sitting tied for 17th and 19th, respectively.

REGULAR-SEASON VGK MILESTONES

The Golden Knights played their 200th all-time regular-season game against the Vancouver Canucks at T-Mobile Arena (Dec. 15). Vegas improved to 112-69-19 (243 points) with a 6-3 win over the Canucks and owns the second-best record in NHL history by a franchise through its first 200 games in terms of wins, points and point percentage. It was also the team's 100th all-time regular-season home game and the Golden Knights improved to 62-28-10 (134 points) at T-Mobile Arena. Vegas owns the fourth-best record in League history by a franchise through its first 100 home games, behind the original Ottawa Senators (78-19-3, 159 points), Montreal Canadiens (71-28-1, 143 points) and Toronto Arenas/St. Patricks (69-29-2, 140 points).

CENTURY MARK

The Golden Knights captured their 100th victory as a franchise with a 3-0 win over the Pittsburgh Penguins (Oct. 19), giving Vegas a cumulative record of 100-59-14. It took the organization 173 regular-season games to reach the century mark as they became the fourth franchise in NHL history to achieve the feat in less than 200 games. The only team to do it quicker than the Golden Knights was the original Ottawa Senators, who reached the mark in 165 games. The Montreal Canadiens (183 GP) & Toronto Maple Leafs (190 GP) also achieved the feat in less than 200 games.

FOUR PLAYERS WITH 20+ GOALS

The Golden Knights are one of eight teams, joining Florida, Philadelphia, Tampa Bay, Toronto, Vancouver, Washington and Winnipeg who have at least four players that have scored at least 20 goals this season. As a team, Vegas is tied for ninth with 224 goals this season. Max Pacioretty leads the team with 32 goals, Reilly Smith has scored 27 goals, Jonathan Marchessault has recorded 22 goals this season and Mark Stone has posted 21 goals.

STONE ERA

Vegas forward Mark Stone turned in back-to-back-to-back multi-point games to start the 2019-20 season (Oct. 2-8). It was the first time in his career that he recorded multiple points in three straight games to start a season. He recorded multiple points in four consecutive games (Dec. 13-19) for the first time in his career. He recorded his first two goal game of the season against Arizona (Dec. 28). Against Florida, Stone became the first player in Golden Knights history to post a five-point game (2G, 3A) during the regular season. He matched his career-high with four assists in a single game on two occasions in February, against St. Louis (Feb. 13) & at Anaheim (Feb. 23). He is just the second player this season to post multiple four assist games, joining Edmonton's Leon Draisaitl. This season, the Winnipeg, Manitoba native has recorded 63 points (21G, 42A) & posted his 200th career assist against Ottawa (Oct. 17).

MAD MAX!

Vegas forward Max Pacioretty was named the NHL "First Star" of the week (Dec. 16) after recording eight points (5G, 3A) and helping lead the Golden Knights to a 3-1-0 record during the week. He scored goals in four consecutive games from Dec. 10-15, the longest streak by a Vegas player this season, & recorded a point in six straight games (Dec. 10-19). He recorded points in five straight games (Feb. 17-26) & scored his 30th goal of the season against Edmonton (Feb. 26). It is the sixth time in his career, and the first time since the 2016-17 season, that he has reached the 30 goal plateau. This season, the New Canaan, CT native has recorded 66 points (32 G, 34 A) and represented the organization at the 2020 NHL All-Star Game in St. Louis, Missouri. In his first NHL All-Star Game appearance, Pacioretty helped lead the Pacific Division to victory. He becomes the third different Golden Knights player to lead the team in goals after William Karlsson (2017-18) and Jonathan Marchessault (2018-19) led the team during the last two season. Vegas is the fourth expansion team after 1979-80 to have a different leading goal scorer in its first three seasons.

FLOWER CONTINUES TO CLIMB THE ALL-TIME WINS LADDER

Marc-Andre Fleury has climbed from eighth to fifth place on the NHL's all-time regular-season wins list this season, surpassing Terry Sawchuk, Curtis Joseph and Henrik Lundqvist. He finished the regular season with 466 career victories, which is 18 wins behind Ed Belfour. The Sorel, Quebec native recorded his 450th career win against the Toronto Maple Leafs (4-2 on Nov. 19) and made arguably the "Save of the Year" denying Nic Petan with an full-extension glove save.

FINISHING TOP-FIVE IN VICTORIES

Marc-Andre Fleury finished with 27 wins this season, tied for fifth most in the NHL. It is the seventh season of his career ranking in the NHL's top five in wins, tied for the most by any goaltender since Fleury entered the league in 2003-04.

Most Seasons in NHL Top 5 In Wins – Since 2003-04

Marc-Andre Fleury, PIT-VGK	7 (including 2019-20)
Miikka Kiprusoff, CGY	6
Henrik Lundqvist, NYR	5
Martin Brodeur, NJD	5

FLOWER CONTINUING TO SHUT THE DOOR

Marc-Andre Fleury turned aside all 29 shots as he blanked the Edmonton Oilers (Feb. 26) and posted his 61st career regular-season shutout, which matches Turk Broda for 17th place on the NHL's all-time list. Fleury recorded five of his 61 career shutouts in 2019-20, tied for the second most among all goaltenders this season with Columbus rookie Elvis Merzlikins and Boston's Tuukka Rask. Winnipeg's Connor Hellebuyck led the league with six shut outs.

GOALTENDER OF THE DECADE?

Marc-Andre Fleury led all goaltenders in regular-season wins over the past decade (321). He is one of four goaltenders with multiple Stanley Cup wins in the 2010s; only three netminders have more than his 47 playoff wins in that span.

SMITH POSTS CAREER-HIGH IN GOALS

Reilly Smith finished the season with 54 points (27-27) and appeared in every VGK game during the abbreviated season. His 27 goals were a career-high and he matched his career-high by posting four multi-goal games.

THE "SHEA HEY KID"

Vegas defenseman Shea Theodore tallied the game-winning goal in back-to-back nights, first scoring the go-ahead goal at the Calgary Flames (March 8) with 70 seconds left in regulation and then posted his third overtime goal of the season at the Edmonton Oilers (March 9). Theodore became the 11th defenseman over the last 21 years (since 1998-99) to score a game-winning goal in consecutive days and second to do so this season, joining Washington's John Carlsson. The Langley, British Columbia native has already turned in a career-year, posting highs in goals (13), assists (33) & points (46), all of which are the most ever by a VGK blueliner in a single season. Theodore's 46 points rank as the 10th most in the NHL this season & ranks tied for fifth in the league since January 1 with 23 points (8G, 15A).

FATHER & SON COMBOS

Paul Stastny's overtime goal against Nashville (Nov. 27) was the 700th point of his NHL career (241-459—700 in 901 GP). Paul joined his father Peter Stastny (450-789—1,239 in 977 GP) as just the third father-son duo in NHL history to each record at least 700 career regular-season points. The others: Gordie Howe (801-1,049—1,850 in 1,767 GP) & Mark Howe (197-545—742 in 929 GP), as well as Bobby Hull (610-560—1,170 in 1,063 GP) & Brett Hull (741-650—1,391 in 1,269 GP).

NEW FACES IN THE VGK LINEUP

This season the Golden Knights acquired four players who made immediate impacts for the team. Vegas acquired forward Chandler Stephenson from the Washington Capitals on Dec. 2 and he finished the 2019-20 season with a career-high 26 points (11-15), 22 of which (8-14) came with Vegas. On Feb. 19, the organization acquired Alec Martinez from the Los Angeles Kings and he posted eight points (2-6) in 10 games with the Golden Knights, matching his points total in 41 games with the Kings. On trade deadline day, Vegas acquired forward Nick Cousins from Montreal and goaltender Robin Lehner from Chicago. Cousins appeared in seven games for the Golden Knights and posted three points (1-2) while Lehner appeared in three games for Vegas, posting a 3-0-0 record to go with a 1.67 goals against average and a .940 save percentage. His first shut out as a Golden Knight came against New Jersey on March 3.

March 10, 2018 - With a 2-1 shootout victory over the Buffalo Sabres, the Golden Knights improve to 20-12-3 on the road and set the record for most road wins by a team in its inaugural season in league history, passing the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim (1993-94).

March 12, 2018 - Vegas Golden Knight's goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury becomes the 13th goalie in NHL history to capture 400th career victory as Vegas defeats the Philadelphia Flyers, 3-2.

March 18, 2018 - Vegas Golden Knight's goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury captures 401st career victory and 48th career shutout while forward William Karlsson records his second career hat trick and becomes the 11th player in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) to record multiple hat tricks while playing for a team in its inaugural season, and just the eighth with a natural hat trick, as Vegas defeats the Calgary Flames, 4-0.

March 22, 2018 - Vegas became the first team in NHL history to reach the 100-point mark in its inaugural season. The previous benchmark to reach the century mark took three seasons, set by the Oilers in 1981-82 and four campaigns for a team that did not merge from the WHA (a mark set by the Islanders in 1975-76).

March 26, 2018 - The Vegas Golden Knights defeated the Colorado Avalanche to become the third expansion team since 1968-69 – and first to start from scratch – to clinch a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 1979-80, the Hartford Whalers and Edmonton Oilers each reached the postseason after joining the NHL from the World Hockey Association. In addition to the Golden Knights, Oilers and Whalers, only four other expansion clubs from any of the four North American professional sports leagues qualified for the playoffs. The four other expansion clubs to reach the playoffs – all from the NBA – are the 1966-67 Chicago Bulls, 1976-77 Denver Nuggets, 1976-77 San Antonio Spurs and 2002-03 New Orleans Hornets. The Nuggets and Spurs joined from the defunct American Basketball Association, while the newly-formed Bulls were part of an eight-team playoff bracket in a 10-team league. The Hornets, meanwhile, relocated from Charlotte but are considered an expansion franchise by the NBA.

March 31, 2018 - Vegas defeats San Jose and becomes the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division (excluding mergers and all-expansion divisions).

April 7, 2018 - The Golden Knights finish their inaugural regular season with a record of 51-24-7 and 109 points.

April 11, 2018 - The Golden Knights capture their first postseason victory in franchise history. Vegas became the first team in NHL history to win its playoff debut in its inaugural season when facing a non-first-year team. The Golden Knights joined the Rangers (1927), Blues (1968) and Kings (1968) as the only teams to post a playoff shutout in their inaugural NHL season. The Rangers and Blues also achieved the feat in their postseason debut.

April 13, 2018 - The Golden Knights take a 2-0 series lead over the Los Angeles Kings. They became the third team in NHL history to win a playoff game requiring multiple overtimes in its inaugural season. Vegas also became the fifth franchise in NHL history to win each of their first two playoff games and just the second to do so in its inaugural season.

April 17, 2018 - The Golden Knights become just the third team from the NHL, NBA and MLB to complete a four-game sweep to win their first-ever playoff series – and the first to do so in their inaugural season.

April 26, 2018 - The Golden Knights capture their fifth consecutive victory of the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs with a 7-0 win over the San Jose Sharks, becoming the first NHL team ever to win its first five postseason games.

May 6, 2018 - The Golden Knights become just the third franchise in NHL history to win multiple series in its inaugural season after defeating the San Jose Sharks 3-0 in Game 6 of the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs Second Round. Vegas holds an 8-2 record through its first 10 playoff games – the best record through a franchise's first 10 postseason contests in NHL history.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GAME-DAY MEDIA POLICIES

Media Credentials

Credentials are issued to media who cover the Golden Knights and for the 2020-21 regular season will be issued on a game-by-game basis. Members of the media will need to apply for a credential by clicking here and will need to receive an approval email before attending the game. Under no circumstance will you be issued a credential without receiving an approval email from a member of the VGK communications staff. We will not be issuing any "walk-up" credentials during the 2020-21 season. Also, there will be no season-long credentials issued this season. The credential is good only for the game printed on the tag and must be displayed to a T-Mobile Arena security personnel to gain entry to restricted areas. Please contact Eric Tosi (etosi@vegasgoldenknights.com) for additional credential information. Applications for credentials will close at 5 p.m. PT the day prior to the requested contest. If you apply after the cut off time, you will not be issued a credential. We will respond to all requests as promptly as possible. Please wait for confirmation on your request.

This season, all print/digital/non-rightsholder television media will receive a GREEN credential per the NHL directives.

Media Parking

The Vegas Golden Knights can provide complimentary parking. Media parking at T-Mobile Arena is located on the fifth level of the Aria parking garage. Media members who have their parking confirmed will have their names on a list with a parking attendant. Those requesting parking need to reach out to Sage Sammons (ssammons@vegasgoldenknights.com) at least 48 hours before each contest.

Press Gate/Media Will Call

The press gate is located on the west side of T-Mobile Arena on Park Avenue at the West Rollup Door between The Armory Entrance and the West VIP Entrance. Signs will direct members of the media to the press gate. Members of the Vegas Golden Knights communications staff will check media in and issue single game credentials. Credentials will be available for pickup 90 minutes prior to puck drop.

Press Meal

Pregame meals will be served as individual portions as a "box lunch" and approved media members are allowed one box meal per game. Your food will be supplied outside the media elevator on the fifth floor of T-Mobile Arena. All food must be consumed in the press box at each individuals assigned seat.

Please note there will not be a full pregame buffet meal or press box snack service this season due to COVID-19 protocols.

Press Box/Stella Artois Lounge

In compliance with the National Hockey League regulations, members of the media will only be allowed in designated zones at T-Mobile Arena. This includes the press box and other specific areas designated by the Vegas Golden Knights communications department. Members of the media cannot access any other part of T-Mobile Arena other than level five unless otherwise given permission by a member of the VGK communications staff. The Press Box is on level five of T-Mobile Arena on the side opposite the team benches. Media will access the designated press elevator by following signage and guidance once inside the building. Seats in the press box are on an assigned basis only and members of the media must sit in the seat assigned to them. Please check the seating charts in the press box or check with the Golden Knights communications staff member for your seat assignment. There will be limited seating in the Press Box for media members and additional seating will be provided, albeit with an obstructed view, in the Stella Artois Lounge. Each seat will be socially distant from neighboring seats. Please do not move your seats within six-feet of another individual. If you need to use the restroom, please use the restroom inside Hyde Lounge. The Press Box restrooms will not be accessible for media. In compliance with T-Mobile Arena regulations, smoking is not allowed in the arena.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GOLDEN KNIGHTS ON RADIO

In addition to broadcasting games in English, the Vegas Golden Knights have featured Spanish broadcasts on Deportes Las Vegas 1460. The Golden Knights are one of four teams to broadcast any games in Spanish during the 2018-19 season, being joined by the Chicago Blackhawks, Los Angeles Kings and San Jose Sharks, but Vegas is the only organization that has broadcast all home games in Spanish

For the third consecutive year, Jesus Lopez will again handle the play-by-play duties, while Herbert Castro will provide analysis of games this season. Vegas was one of only two teams to broadcast games in Spanish during the 2017-18 season, being joined by Chicago. In total, 20 regular season games and all of the home games during the Stanley Cup Playoffs were heard in Spanish during the Golden Knights inaugural season. During the 2018-19 season, the organization aired all 41 regular season home games in Spanish as well as every game during the opening round of the Stanley Cup playoffs against the San Jose Sharks.

Select Golden Knights games of the Spanish feed at T-Mobile Arena are available on television through the Second Audio Program (SAP) function during home games.

T-MOBILE ARENA

T-Mobile Arena, the home of the Vegas Golden Knights, is a 650,000-square-foot entertainment and sports venue sitting on 16 acres between New York-New New York Hotel & Casino and Park MGM Las Vegas. Construction for T-Mobile Arena started on May 1, 2014 and less than two years later the arena hosted its grand opening on April 6, 2016 with a sold-out concert headlined by local legends including The Killers, "Mr. Las Vegas" Wayne Newton and emerging pop artist Shamir.

SEATING CAPACITIES

Boxing/UFC	20,000
End Stage Concerts	12,000 – 18,000
Center Stage Concert	19,500 – 20,000
Hockey	17,367
Basketball	19,000

To capture the excitement of The Strip, T-Mobile Arena's design includes an expansive glass façade with an LED overlay, sweeping, dramatic balconies on every level, an outdoor performance stage and a sleek exterior that is as bold as it is sophisticated. The design creates a visually captivating and iconic focal point in Las Vegas' bustling entertainment market.

As guests enter T-Mobile Arena, they walk through Toshiba Plaza, an open-air public venue that connects The Strip, The Park and T-Mobile Arena. This two-acre flexible event space has the ability to host outdoor basketball and volleyball events, public concerts, media events and a variety of other activations including fan festivities prior to Golden Knights games.

Inside the arena, guests can experience unrivaled premium seating options featuring Event Level Suites, Luxury Suites, Opera Boxes and Terrace Tables, as well as Club and Event Level seating programs. There are eight Event Level "Bunker" suites, 44 Luxury Suites and two Party Suites inside T-Mobile Arena. There also are nine event spaces, including several VIP Lounges and two Tower Club spaces that cantilever over the upper bowl offering unique views of the arena.

In addition to being home to the Vegas Golden Knights, the venue hosts more than 100 events annually. Past and current events include the Billboard Music Awards, iHeartRadio Music Festival, Latin GRAMMYs, Academy of Country Music (ACM) Awards, Professional Bull Riders (PBR) World Finals, the NHL Awards & Expansion Draft, Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament, concerts by some of the top touring artists in the world and major boxing events including the Floyd Mayweather vs. Conor McGregor and Canelo Alvarez vs. Gennady Golovkin bouts, among many others. T-Mobile Arena also is the exclusive Las Vegas arena destination for Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC).

T-Mobile Arena has been named the No. 1 venue on Billboard Magazine's 2018 Arena Power List and the "Best New Major Concert Venue" by Pollstar Magazine in 2016, among other recognitions since its opening.

CITY NATIONAL ARENA

When the idea of an NHL franchise in Las Vegas became a reality, Chairman and CEO Bill Foley knew that the Vegas Golden Knights would need a state-of-the-art facility that served as a home for the hockey team and the business team.

Thus, the vision for City National Arena was born. Designed to house all the needs of a hockey team and staff, the building was tailored for a new franchise and its excited fanbase. Equipped with two sheets of ice, office space, top-tier training and medical equipment, and an expansive locker room, the rink effectively serves all the needs of the team and business as it laid its roots in Las Vegas.

The fan experience was an important aspect of the building's design as the organization wanted the people of Las Vegas to embrace the Golden Knights. City National Arena serves the needs of the community by housing youth and adult hockey programs as well as multi-tiered figure skating programs. Between the sheets lies Mackenzie River Pizza, a full-service grill and pub which serves as a common place for fans to gather and watch Golden Knights games on television. The Arsenal, located in the building lobby, is the home to unique team apparel as well as a fully functioning hockey pro shop.

After the inaugural season of Golden Knights hockey, the building transformed to reflect the team's brand identity that developed during that first year. A state-of-the-art video scoreboard was installed on the team's main practice rink and a castle structure was built around it. Black, gray and gold paint was laid upon the walls of the building to create a feel that matched the team's uniform.
